There are the steps allowing you to Order and Download for free licensed Microsoft Software products from the website <http://microsoft.ase.ro>

The downloaded software is licensed to you for your entire life (if you graduated or you discontinue the education program in which you enrolled the license remains yours). To do that you must have an active account to (this account can be created by following the steps of “inregistrare” [register] process, that can be started from the main page displayed).

For your projects you can download any version of Visual Studio (is better be Visual Studio 2010, since this is available in the classroom) and any Expression Web greater than or equal to 2 (Version 3 is the installed one in the classroom). You can download either the singularly Expression Web application or the package containing it Expression Studio xx.

The required steps are shown in the following pages as captions of a real dialog.

1. Access <http://microsoft.ase.ro> web page. The screen will look like:

If you have already an account skip step 2 and follow the step 3.

2. If you don't have yet an account choose "inregistrare" (register) and the displayed form will look like:

A screenshot of the registration form on the Microsoft Student Partners | ASE website. The form is titled 'MSDN Academic Alliance (MSDN AA)' and 'Inregistrare'. It includes a graphic with the text 'Acces gratuit la tehnologia de care ai nevoie' and 'msdn academic alliance'. The form fields include 'Forma de invatamant:' (a dropdown menu with options like 'Licenta', 'Master', 'Doctorat', 'Cadru Didactic'), 'Prenume:', and 'Nume:'. A note below the fields states 'Nu se vor folosi diacritice.' At the bottom, there is a disclaimer: 'Nici un fel de informatii cu caracter personal nu vor fi transmise catre terti. Datele introduse nu vor fi vandute, inregistrate sau facute publice sub nici un motiv.'

You must specify first in what kind of program (educational cycle) enrolled.

After you choose the program the form changes and requires from your part the following information:
